The proposed bill will, I predict, pre-cipitate one of the most spirited de-bates which has been heard in congress Sylvia Pankhurst, on the other hand, not prepared to abandon militancy ntil she has fully tested the fighting capacity of her "people's army" which she organized in the East End of Lonfor years, and will provoke a free and full discussion of our present foreign don, and with which she is credited as believing she can start a which will force the government to enfranchise women.

Several of the younger and more ambitious membercs of the Women's Social and Political Union view with unconcealed satisfaction the Pankhurst feud, believing it will end the autocratic sway the Pankhursts have exercised over the society since Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pethyck Lawrence were driven out of it last year

Criminal Probe in Siegel Case. New York, Feb. 6—Facts relating to the bank of Henry Siegel and Com-pany, which recently went into re-ceiver's hands, will be brought to the attention of United States District Attorney H. Snowden Marshall by one of his assistants, Roger B. Wood, with whom Henry Meiville, the receiver for Henry Siegel and Company, was today in conference, for the purpose, it was stated, of determining whether or not there was ground for action in the case by the federal government. Tribute to Congressman Bremner. Washington, Feb 6-A glowing tribute to the late Representative Robert Bremner of New Jersey was delivered by Chaplain Couden at the opening of today's session of the house. Mr. Couden said the sunny smile and sympathetic interest of the New Jer-sey member would be missed in congress, in every avocation and every walk of life.
